FIRE BUG BUSY ON SOMERSET PIKE

HOUSE ON M. S. BAUGHMAN'S PLACE ROBBED AND THEN BURNED.

Fire, undoubtedly of incendiary origin, destroyed a tenant house on M. S. Baughman's farm Tuesday night together with all the contents, the property of Oliver Baughman, who lived there with his family for some time.

The blaze was discovered by Mr. Baughman about seven o'clock. When the house, which was on the Somerset pike, just north of Mr. Baughman's home place, was reached, it was completely enveloped in flame and it was seen at once that there was no chance to save it. Mr. Baughman immediately telephoned to William for the bloodhounds belonging to his automobile he sped to Danville where he met the fast Cincinnati Southern train, and within four hours after the blaze Capt. Mullikin and his dogs were on the trail. The dogs seemed to take the scent at once, and trailed straight to another house in the section, occupied by a family named Davis, who had formerly lived at Rowland. Great difficulty was had in awakening the male members of the family, but when finally aroused, they denied all knowledge of the occurrence. A search warrant was gotten out Thursday however, and search of their premises made by Dink Farmer, but nothing could be found. Mr. Mitchell and family were away at the time of the burning, he being at the home of his brother, Charles Mitchell on the place of J. W. Baughman. No one had been inside of his house for almost two weeks, and there is no way in which it could have caught fire had not a match been applied. It is believed that the house was first robbed, and then burned in an effort to conceal the crime. A view of the building after it had burned down, shows traces of several jars of "ketchup" which was more or less consumed. A large quantity of fine preserves was also found, but there is no trace of them and it is believed that they were among the plunder taken from the building before the fire was kindled under it.

Several suspicious tracks were found about the house, and this with other evidence will probably be laid before the grand jury when it convenes next month. The loss to Mr. Baughman in the house will amount to but a few hundred dollars. Mr. Mitchell, however, lost his all and a subscription paper was passed about town to raise a fund to assist him through the winter.

Football Victim

FIRST OF SEASON HERE IS BURNSIDE HUFFMAN

The first football victim in this vicinity is Burnside Huffman, the 14-year-old son of Mr. A. G. Huffman. The youngster broke his right leg just above the ankle while playing football at the public school last week. His physician set the member and he is resting as comfortably as it is possible for a lad of that age to, lying in bed. His limb was carefully set and he will be out again within the course of a few weeks but will hardly play football again this season.

Skin Affections

WHETHER INFANT OR GROWN PERSON CURED BY ZEMO AND ZEMO SOAP

An Unusual Offer
Penny's Drug Store says to every person, be it man, woman or child, who has an irritated, tender or itching skin to come to our store and procure a bottle of Zemo and a cake of Zemo soap and if you are not entirely satisfied with the results, come back and get your money. A GENEROUS AND CHARITABLE WISH.

"I wish all might know of the benefit I received from your Foley's Kidney remedy," says L. N. Rogan, farmer, Mo. His kidneys and bladder gave him so much pain, misery and annoyance, he could not work, nor sleep. He says Foley's Kidney Remedy completely cured him. Shugars and Tanner.

BURNED TO DEATH

Francis Elizabeth the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. McGirr, of Bowen Station set herself on fire Wednesday at 4:30 with a match. She died at 7:30 A. M. Thursday and was buried at Junction City at 11 A. M. Thursday afternoon. Rev. Summers, of Georgetown, preached the funeral sermon. Mrs. McGirr was Miss Phoebe Fox. A baby boy three weeks old survives.

Casey County Youths

CHARGED WITH DISTURBING RELIGIOUS WORSHIP.

Middleburg, Oct. 27. E. B. Young has a new automobile. He and Mrs. Young took a spin down to Liberty Sunday and spent the day. Sam Jones and Miss Clara Brown were married at the residence of Rev. J. S. Taylor here Sunday afternoon. The groom is a son of Mr. C. C. Jones at Yosemite and the bride is the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rando Brown of Liberty. Both are popular young people.

Dr. W. J. Sweeney has built quite a neat office at his residence at Yosemite which has improved the appearance of his property greatly. The doctor appears to be doing a prosperous practice. F. L. Jones is furnishing news for the Danville Advocate from this section. A few of our farmers have begun shipping tobacco and the quality is fine. Judge Lincoln Wells was here Sunday. Miss Willie Fogle and W. E. McWhorter will attend the Sunday school Union at Valley Oak Sunday. Mrs. Hubert Jones and baby, of Thursday are with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones on the Liberty place.

Rev. R. H. Lee, James Adams and Willard Neal came down from Grove at 12 o'clock Thursday night and swore out writs for John Hamilton Frank Cain, Dely Floyd, Harry Salvers and J. C. Wall charging them with disturbing religious worship. The writs were placed in Constable Marion Black hands and by 10 o'clock Friday morning he was marching the boys up to the Squire's office. They all deny the charge and say they will be able to prove their innocence when their trial comes up tomorrow, Wednesday.

Rev. W. S. Taylor of Burgin is holding a meeting at the Baptist church at Grove and the disturbance occurred while he was preaching Thursday afternoon. The Champion Bridge Company, of Wilmington, Ohio, has contracts for building two bridges in this county and the work was to have been completed by September 15th but up to this good hour nothing has been done.

Caleb Powers seems to be losing out in popularity since he has been shown up in his true light. The crowd that met him at Liberty, yesterday, Monday was very dissatisfied that had been made to drum up an audience for him.

Hubble

Our school has been closed for a few days on account of a dysentery scare.

Rev. P. H. Davis of Louisville, will begin a protracted meeting at McKindree Wednesday night.

W. H. Dunnagan sold T. C. Hankin a pair of horse mules 16 hands high for his brother A. P. Sloan last Sun for $325.

J. M. Sloan of Bryantsville was visiting.

Uncle Jerry Smothers got one of his mules drowned last week in Hanging Fork. He was hauling water for his engine and drove in too deep.

Mrs. Jennett Campbell is visiting her brother James McKeechie.

J. C. Rankin has moved to his new home in Garrard.

There was no preaching at McKindree last Sunday on account of the pastor being sick.

News is scarce about here now, your correspondent has been on the sick list for some time and can't get out to hear much.

TO THE PUBLIC

We are pleased to take this method of recommending Jesse D. Wearner, The Insurance Man, Stanford, Ky., to the insurance public, for his very prompt attention and liberal settlement of loss of our entire stock of merchandise, while at Turnersville, Ky. Dated 10-15-1910. Signed Lutes Bros.

THE CALL OF THE BLOOD

For purification finds voice in pimples, boils, shallow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin—all signs of liver trouble. But Mr. King's New Life Pills make rich red blood; give clear skin, rosy cheeks, fine complexion, health. Try them. 25 cents at Penny's Drug Store.

SHOULD BE IN CONFEDERATE HOME

PATHETIC STORY OF ONE OF MORGAN'S HEROES NOW IN POORHOUSE

Crab Orchard, Ky., Oct. 27. A few days ago as I walked down the streets of Crab Orchard I met an old friend his form bowed and his head was covered by the frosts of many winters, age had dimmed the fire of his eye, and on his brow the foot of melancholy had left its track. As I grasped his hand I said my old friend why don't you go to the confederate soldiers' home? said he "If a ticket there only cost ten cents I could not buy one."

A mist gathered in my eyes as I thought who my old friend is and who he has been. I remembered what my father and mother had told me of his family whom they had known in antebellum days. His father was a Garrard county man, who lived on a Blue Grass farm of a thousand acres in a palatial residence facing the turnpike. At the beginning of the war he owned over 600 negroes. He was one of the richest men that ever lived in old Garrard, but misfortune came and his property was swept away like mist before the morning sun.

When the Civil War broke out, my young hero joined his sweetheart and mounted a thoroughbred and followed the God loved Morgan into Dixie land.

He belonged to Rigsby's regiment and Captain Tom Shanks Company; was captured on the famous Ohio raid and imprisoned with Morgan in the Ohio penitentiary and transferred from there to Camp Douglas. From there he escaped by tunneling under the wall with six of his comrades, was betrayed and captured on the outside, finally bribed a guard and escaped then went back to confederacy, was wounded at Melton Tenn., by being shot through both hips. What these men suffered for the cause they loved.

I often think of the picture painted by Georgia's gifted son, Henry W. Grady, "when in April 1865 under north an apple tree at Appomattox Grant took Lee's sword in surrender, there on every ragged gray cap the Lord God Almighty laid the sword of his unperishable knighthood." Think of this ragged gray band who for four years had held Grant's teeming legions at bay—they were the salt of the earth.

Not long since I attended the funeral of Judge M. C. Santley at Stanford. He was a man whom I greatly admired, a lawyer, a jurist, and orator and a patriot. He was taken to his last resting place wrapped in a Confederate flag.

As the body was borne from the residence Judge J. W. Alcorn walked in front, by his side a gray haired chieftain; it is enough to say his name was Breckinridge. There fell in behind his casket his old comrades in arms, they were the greatest body of men that ever paid their last respects to a brother soldier.

But returning to my subject; who is my old hero who once wore the gray with a heart of gold? He is John Saiter. One thing I must state that I wish could be left out that is he is now an inmate of the Lincoln county poor house.

Just one word to the soldiers who followed Morgan. Can't John Saiter get a ticket to the Confederate Soldiers' home? I am sincerely W. B. HANSFORD.

(The Interior Journal will be glad to receive and give credit in the paper to any who may wish to contribute toward a fund to defray the expenses of this veteran to the Confederate Home)

Dripping Springs

Miss Kate Wells of near Crab Orchard is teaching the Tyrone school this year very successfully.

Buck Davis bought some wheat of Sam Gooch, of Goschen at $1.

Master Stephen Holman has had a very bad spell of typhoid fever but is recovering. It is feared that he will be crippled in his lower limbs from its effects.

Mrs. Johnson is very ill of heart trouble. Speed Mason has been quite ill of stomach trouble.

Mr. Dabney Davis raised the largest sweet potato ever seen in this section, which is over four pounds in weight.

Mr. Matthew Wells has just returned from Granite City and is with his brother Mr. J. T. Wells.

Our old friend and schoolmate, Mr. James Dychouse is running a saw mill here and other business formerly conducted by Jesse N. Singleton, deceased.

SAVED FROM GRAVE.

"I had about given up hope, after nearly four years of suffering from a severe lung trouble," writes Mrs. M. L. Dix, of Clarksville, Tenn. "Often the pain in my chest would be almost unbearable and I could not do any work, but Dr. King's New Discovery has made me feel like a new person. Its best medicine made for the throat and lungs." Obsolete coughs, asthma, croup, hay fever, influenza, whooping cough, and other ailments, yield quickly to this wonderful medicine. Try it 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

LOOKS GOOD FOR NEW DEPOT HERE

LOCAL COMMITTEE CALL ON L. & N. OFFICIALS AND ARE MUCH ENCOURAGED

Hons. W. H. Shanks and R. L. Hubble, S. F. Harris, W. M. Bright interviewed Superintendent Snyder and other high officials of the L. & N. in regard to a new depot for Stanford at Louisville Wednesday and returned highly pleased with the manner in which their petition had been received and the encouragement given them.

While the railroad officials were not able to give them a positive assurance that the depot would be built they promised to look carefully into the situation here, and do whatever is possible. The local committee carried with them the lengthy petitions which have been so generously signed by Stanford and Lincoln county people, and delivered them to the railroad officials for perusal. These petitions recite the growth of both passenger and freight business at Stanford since the present unsightly station was built, and call attention to its lack of proper and adequate accommodations at present. The committee is very hopeful that the railroad will see its way to putting another depot here early in the spring at the latest.

Crab Orchard.

The ladies of the Baptist church will hold an exchange at Mr. Robert Edlin's store, on Saturday, the 5th of November. Please don't forget the date. We ask that all the ladies make liberal donations, and be present.

Mr. George Bronaugh has left to take a position as bookkeeper for the R. R. at Washota.

Mrs. Minon Morris and son Wm. Mason left for Muskogee, Okla., their adopted home after a most delightful and beneficial visit with her sister Mrs. J. F. Holdam. Mrs. Holdam accompanied them as far as Louisville where she will remain during the week before returning home.

Mrs. Charles Rutledge, passed away Saturday A. M. the 22nd, after a lingering illness with tuberculosis. She leaves a husband and three children besides many friends to mourn her loss. She gave her heart to Jesus a few months ago and united with the Baptist church. During her illness she gave sufficient testimony of her faith and trust in Jesus and willingness to go and be with him who had prepared her soul for the mansion above. We express the comforting thought that her spirit has now taken possession of her "inheritance among all these which are sanctified" and beckoning her loved ones to follow. The funeral sermon was preached by Bro. Kimble at her residence, after which the remains were taken to Carversville for interment.

Ottenheim

Mr. Richard Wintjes has painted his residence. It is quite an improvement to our little town.

James Singleton of Crab Orchard, is ill with typhoid fever.

Your correspondent accompanied Mr. B. T. Lunsford to Stanford, a few days since, where that gentleman went before the Fiscal Court and made a very timely talk on the road system of our county. His talk while not very lengthy, was one of the best as it contained so many practical suggestions which we think would, if put in practice, make very noticeable improvement in the condition of our highways. He urged the county judges to invite the citizens of Lincoln county to come together and discuss the situation. Mr. L. proposed a plan which would, if adopted soon place our county in the forefront as builder of good roads. The court accorded the speaker the best attention and we feel sure that some action will soon be taken that will give us better roads ere long. Now is the time for Lincoln county to awaken from her slumber and bestir herself and make the start for good roads, putting practical road men in charge of the work, with ample compensation for their services, and at the same time let these be under bond for the faithful performance of duty. Then let our road laws be enforced and not cumber our statutes as dead letters! With an annual appropriation for turnpike roads of $15,000 supplemented by an annual appropriation of $6,000 for dirt roads, why is it that we can't have as good roads as Boyle, Mercer or Garrard? The answer which will best cover the whole scope of this vital question which will not down, is in short, lack of system.

HIGH CLASS STUFF AT YOWELL'S SALE

BIG CROWD ON HAND AND LIVELY BIDDING CARRIED MOST OF THE PRICES HIGH

One of the best sales held in Lincoln county this season was that of F. M. Yowell & Sons, at their farm just beyond Hustonsville last Tuesday. Mr. Yowell himself is confined to his bed suffering severely from gall stones, but his sons, Smith and James looked after things and with Capt. T. D. English on the block saw that good prices were obtained.

A large crowd was present and bidding was very spirited at times. Mr. Yowell had a bunch of very high class stock. A fine burgoon dinner was served on the ground. Some of the best sales made during the day were:
